come from Italy and Germany. Among the most notable are the Florenz and Grunatho troupes of gymnasts.

The comedy part of the show is given under the direction of the clowns, Spader Johnson, Harry Wentworth, Sam Watson, Frank Oakley, and thirty-five 'Merry Andrews' keep the rings and hippodrome alive during the time they are 'on.' These funnakers are of the class known as 'mechanical clowns,' and they use a great deal of ingenious and interesting paraphernalia in their acts. The hippodrome races are rendered as exciting and realistic as possible by the use of genuine racing stock.

The menagerie is notable this year from the fact that it presents thirty elephants, including the only mother elephant in captivity; four giraffes; a specimen of the bi-horned rhinoceros, recently secured in Africa; twenty camels and dromedaries, and fifty cages of rare animals.

The show is preceded by a splendidly costumed spectacle. This gorgeous display is entitled "The Durbar at Delhi," and it serves to introduce hundreds of men, women and children, and scores of horses, elephants, dromedaries and other animals in an oriental spectacle.

The big sensations of the show this year are furnished by Mile. Mauricia de Tiers, who shoots forty feet through space in an automobile, and Volo, the volitant, who leaps a chasm on a bicycle. Reserved seats may be secured down town, both circus days, at the Smith Drug Co. 175 South Main street, and on the show grounds, at the Agricultural park, at the opening hours. A PRETTY lot on the corner of 7th and M Sts., facing south and east, 464x182 feet, with alley in rear; 8800.
Also a beautiful corner, 334x132 feet, facing north and west on 8th and L Sts. For a cuick sale, $500.
